Kimm,
Your former student, [REDACTED] earned a 'D' in your Sports Marketing class as a freshman. He is able to play soccer next year at an NAIA college. We are working to improve his overall GPA. Would you be willing to change his 'D' to a 'Pass?' If so, just respond to this email with "approved" and I will take care of the paperwork. Thank you in advance for your time.

Heather,

If you would consider a grade change for [REDACTED] for second semester of last year from a 'D' to a 'P' also, would you let me know? You could either respond to this email with "approved," or I could have him come by and see you with a grade change form.

Thank you☺

Brooke,

[REDACTED] is able to play collegiate soccer for an AIA school so we are working to improve his GPA. He seemed to be working at an 'A-' in your class most of the semester. He ended the semester with you by earning a 'C+.' I noticed that he performed well on all tasks, but received a zero for your "Object" assignment. Any chance he can still complete that assignment, or work on whatever you decide in order to earn a higher grade in Art? Let me know what your thoughts are. Thank you in advance for your time.

Steven,

So, [REDACTED] earned a 'D' and a 'C-' in your Junior English class last year. He is able to play collegiate soccer for an NAIA school. However, we are working to get his GPA up. Would you have a proposal on how he could earn a higher grade for you from last year? He is currently earning an 'A-' in Senior English and scored the maximum of 4 credits on the Russian Language exam (making him tri-lingual). Thoughts?

Can I get [REDACTED] a 'P' as opposed to a 'D' in Sports Marketing? We are trying to get his GPA up. Or, does SM need to be a letter grade?
