

Elijah Andersen, Woodland

ALL-REGION FOOTBALL PLAYER OF THE YEAR

TAYLOR BALKOM/The Columbian

Rest of the 2023 All-Region football team: Offense

Holden Bea, Washougal

QB: Senior and Idaho commit passed for 2,567 yards and 28 TDs and rushed for 823 yards and 14 touchdowns.

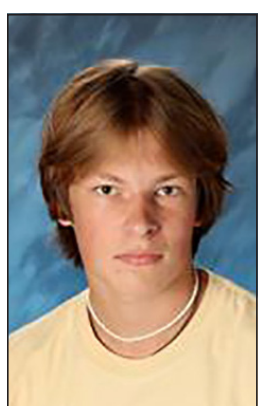

Porter Drake, Mountain View

RB: Senior was the 3A GSHL co-offensive player of the year, rushing for 1,605 yards and 19 touchdowns.

Jacob Williams, Seton Catholic

RB: Junior rushed for 1,415 yards and 18 touchdowns, powering Seton to the 1A state semifinals for the first time.

Trenton Swanson, Camas

REC: Senior and Idaho commit was the 4A GSHL co-offensive player of the year with 76 catches for 982 yards, 6 TDs.

Gavin Packer, Skyview

REC: Slowed by injury early, the junior came on strong late to finish with 36 catches, 725 yards and 10 touchdowns.

Sam Evers, Washougal

REC: Senior led the region in receiving yards with 1,090 on 56 catches for 13 TD as Panthers returned to state playoffs.

Aiden Nicholson, Mountain View

REC: Senior was the Thunder's big-play passing target with 29 receptions for 713 yards and nine touchdowns.

Carson Osmus, Camas

OL: Washington State-bound senior started at left tackle for team that returned all five starting offensive linemen.

Fox Crader, Evergreen

OL: Oregon-bound senior two-way player missed some time for injury but was dominant when he was on the field.

Alex Sederstrom, Skyview

OL: Senior was a leader on an offensive line that set the tone for a potent offensive attack for state quarterfinalist.

Tai Talea, Hudson's Bay

OL: Junior right guard is a two-time first-team all-2A GSHL selectee and centerpiece of solid offensive line.

Payton Stewart, Kelso

OL: Senior, at 6-foot-7, 280 pounds, powered Kelso's potent run game, received offers from Northwestern, OSU.