

Addison Harris, Camas

ALL-REGION GIRLS BASKETBALL PLAYER OF THE YEAR

TAYLOR BALKOM/The Columbian

After leading Camas to the 4A state championship with a win over Gonzaga Prep earlier this month, senior Addison Harris will take her game to Montana State next season.

Rest of the 2024 All-Region girls basketball team

REST OF FIRST TEAM

Brooklynn Haywood, Union

Sophomore was the region's top scorer, averaging 24.5 points game, and surpassed 1,000 career points in just two seasons.

Nina Peterson, Mountain View

Senior and Corban University commit was the 3A GSHL player of the year, averaging 13 points and five rebounds.

Keirra Thompson, Camas

Pass-first junior point guard and 4A state all-tourney pick sparked Camas offense, averaging 6.4 assists per game.

Reagan Jamison, Camas

Senior is a Penn commit and a 4A state tourney pick who displayed versatility and shined brightest on state stage.

Riley Sanz, Camas

Senior was a shifty combo guard (averaging 9.5 points and 3.1 assists) and lockdown defender for state champs.

ALL-REGION TEAMS

The Columbian's All-Region basketball teams are selected by the staff of The Columbian from athletes on teams in the 4A, 3A and 2A Greater St. Helens Leagues, as well as 1A Trico League and 2B Kalama, with consultation of area coaches.

ALL-REGION CELEBRATION

For the first time, The Columbian will be hosting a year-end celebration to honor all of the All-Region honorees from the 2023-24 season. The event is scheduled for Wednesday, June 5 at Kiggins Theater in downtown Vancouver.

SECOND TEAM

Kennedy Bockert, Woodland

Freshman burst onto the scene and set single-single program records for points (438) and rebounds (301).

Emma Iniguez, Columbia River

Senior was the 2A GSHL co-player of the year, helping the Rapids reach state quarterfinals for first time since 1998.

Alana Stephens, Hudson's Bay

Senior was a double-double machine and one of two players in the region to average better than 20 points a game.

Gracie Glavin, Columbia River

Sophomore was the 2A GSHL co-player of the year, averaging 14.8 points a game as Rapids repeated as league champs.

Kimora Ross, Evergreen

Sophomore sparked Plainsmen to a share of the 3A GSHL title and their deepest postseason run since 2011.

Ava Smith, Union

Senior and three-time All-Region pick surpassed 1,000 career points as a consistent 3-point threat.
